Scholar Spotlight: Lauren Uzsinay

Viner Scholar Lauren was chosen to be a Florida Cicerone at the University of Florida. The Florida Cicerones are the official Student Ambassadors whom speak on behalf of the university at events throughout the year. One of the 80 students chosen from a pool of 720 applicants, Lauren will work closely with the Office of Admissions, Office of the President, and University Athletic Association to benefit past, present, and future Florida Gators. "I look forward to the connections, relationships, and personal growth that will result from this experience. However, I know that without the help of the Eda and Cliff Viner Community Scholars Scholarship and, especially my mentor Harriet Rosenberg, I would not have achieved the same success.

From providing insight and tips prior to my interviews to sending me a congratulations text after I was selected, Harriet was there for me every step of the way and I am so fortunate to have her in life. Being a Viner Scholar has drastically shaped my college experience for the better, and I cannot wait to see what is in store for the rest of my time at UF," she said. Congratulations Lauren!

Attention Florida high school seniors! Apply for the Viner Scholars Community Scholarship!

A Letter from the Executive Director

The New, First Impression and Your Dream job

"The best piece of advice I ever received in college came from an unexpected source without them even knowing they gave it to me. This piece of advice not only helped me land my first job but is even more important to today's graduates. Click here to read more about the advice I received and how you can make the best, first impression and hopefully, score your dream job right out of college."
