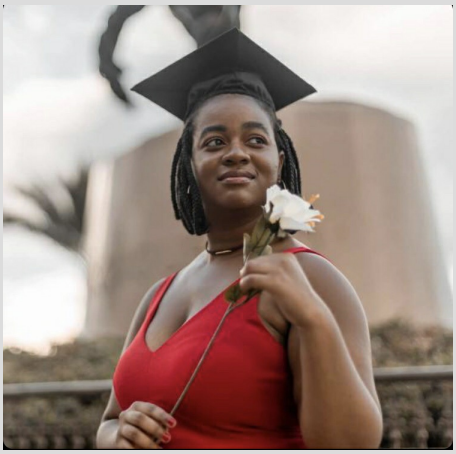
Congratulations to our Scholars who Graduated this December!

Spotlights:

Ayanna Camara

Viner Scholar Ayanna graduated a semester early from FSU with a double major in Political Science and History. She plans on teaching English abroad in China for a year, before applying to law school.



Marko Cuskov

Viner Scholar Marko graduated from UF a semester early with a Bachelor's degree in Business Management and Economics. He is currently in a combined degree program where he is pursuing his graduate degree at the same time. He will graduate from grad school next semester in May with a Masters in International Business.

Valeria Munoz

Kaydiann Elliot

Viner Scholar Kaydiann graduated from USF a semester early with a Bachelors of Science in Business Analytics and Information Systems. She plans to get a full time position.

Julie Ferreira

Viner Scholar Julie graduated from FAU a semester early with a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. During her last semester of college, she started working as a fourth grade teacher in Palm Beach County and will continue in that position.

Natalia Leal

Viner Scholar Valeria graduated from FAU an entire year and a half early with a Bachelor's degree in Multimedia Journalism and a minor in Communications. She plans on attending Grad School next Fall. She wants to work in the radio and music industry.

2015 First Viner Class Scholar Natalia graduated from UF with our first Masters' Scholarship. She obtained her Undergraduate and Master's Degree in Information Systems and Operations Management in 4 and a half years. She will be working for Microsoft in Seattle starting this September.

She will continue to be a Viner family member as a mentor to an incoming student.
